THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE R.SUBHASH REDDY

WRIT PETITION No.24823 of 2005

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed by four petitioners, who are pursuing their post graduate medical course, aggrieved by the action of the respondents in not allowing them to write the examinations in the month of November, 2005.

At the stage of admission, this Court, by an order dated 21.11.2005, granted interim directions to the respondents to allow the petitioners to write the examinations, but their results shall be deferred until further orders.

It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioners as well as the learned standing counsel appearing for the first respondent-University that the subject mater of the writ petition is covered by the judgment of this Court in Dr.V.Sitalakshmi v. Registrar, A.P. University of Health Science[1].

Following the said judgment, this writ petition is allowed directing the respondents to announce the results of the examinations appeared by the petitioners pursuant to the interim direction dated 21.11.2005, and issue necessary certificates to the petitioners. There shall be no order as to costs.
